

ROUND-UP

TRAINING INSTITUTE

NHI inks pact with Swiss Hotel School

MUSCAT: National Hospitality Institute (NHI), a well-known training institute in Oman, has signed a partnership agreement with HTMI Hotel School of Switzerland which will allow NHI's Diploma graduates to move onto a degree level programme in Switzerland. HTMI is one of the leading hotel & tourism management schools in Switzerland offering bachelor's and master's courses in hotel & tourism management, says a press release.

"Collaboration between HTMI and NHI can bring great advantages to students in Muscat and allow them to expand their perspectives globally," said Rohit Bhatia, director HTMI.

Robert MacLean, principal NHI said, "This agreement provides a route to success for those students who feel that they have the abilities to join the industry in a leadership role."