BMI joins hands with NHI to employ young Omani talent

Bin Mirza International (BMI) recently entered into a partnership with the National Hospitality Institute (NHI) to employ young Omani talent interested in attaining positions within the hospitality industry.

As part of an annual recruitment agreement, BMI will be hiring and training young Omani hopefuls via the Ministry of Manpower's vocational training programmes, as well as the NHI. "Over the past few years, we have grown into a family of 100 employees who dedicate their time and effort to creating the BMI experience every day. As we continue to expand, we look forward to take in more national talent, who, given the opportunity will become upstanding members holding key positions within the organisation," said Jannat Moosa, marketing director, Bin Mirza International.
