NHI students raise money for charity

It was smiles everywhere at the Classroom Restaurant at National Hospitality Institute (NHI) as principal Robert MacLean handed over a cheque for RO400 to Sabah al Bahlani, CEO, Association of Early Intervention for Children with Disability.

The money was raised by deducting a percentage from customers who dined at the restaurant, which is located at NHI in Wadi Kabir. MacLean said, "We encourage people to come for lunch or events at Classroom Restaurant as this gives the students an opportunity to work with real customers." NHI is the leading provider of vocational training to the hospitality and travel industry in the sultanate and has been in operation since 1996.
