

المعهد الوطني للضيافة
national hospitality institute

Chaine Des Rotisseurs 40 for 40 Charity Dinner

Date: 27th October 2010

Publication: Muscat Daily

Robert MacLean with students at the charity gourmet dinner on Wednesday.

NHI holds charity gourmet dinner

Aziz Al Rahbi

OMAN TRIBUNE

MUSCAT The National Hospitality Institute (NHI) organised a charity gourmet dinner on Wednesday in aid of the 40/40 fund, which will place 40 young Omanis into higher education coinciding with the 40th National Day celebrations.

The event organised in association with British Community and supported by Oman branch of the International Chaine des Rotisseurs raised around 2,400 rials. Robert MacLean, principal, National Hospitality Institute (NHI) and Toufiq Mohammed AlAjmi, Business Development Manager at NHI were among those present.

The International Chaine des Rotisseurs is a big supporter of the development of young Omanis in the hospitality and tourism sector.

NHI has selected about 15 of the 40 students for scholarships to enable them to pursue a 2-year course in the hospitality sector.

Toufiq said: "We raised around 2,400 rials at the event." NHI, he said provides an opportunity for the students to prepare various cuisines. It is training a number of young Omani students to become good chefs. NHI also supports students to represent Oman in chef's competition.